Song: Bright Lights

Overview: There was one drop this week. It's normal after a single has been out for more than 12 weeks for some stations to want to back off. However, we did have one add as well. We are nearing 16 weeks on this record. It seems this single may have peaked at 114 stations, however for now we are holding steady and will continue to try to do so for the next couple of weeks.
